

Contracts: FPPC Requirements

Visit California is subject to the terms and requirements of the Political Reform Act of 1974, Title 9, Section 81000 of the California Government Code. Certain contractors may be subject to requirements of the PRA as a result of the contractual relationship with Visit California.

Contractors may be required to make economic interest filings with the State of California as a "consultant" pursuant to Visit California's Conflict of Interest Code. Visit California shall make a determination of the employees and contractors constituting consultants, and the level of economic interest disclosure required of such employees and contractors. By entering into a contractual relationship with Visit California, contractors agree to comply with the requirements of the PRA.

All contractors must provide names, titles and email addresses of all staff and contractors working on the Visit California account.
